Editor's version of what happed to Bellaire coin club this month.

January 4, 2010 (Reprinted, since the editor didn't attend the January 18 meeting.)

There were 26 members and guest at the meeting. Garth Clark noted that the official club gavel has been missing since the November 16 meeting. That night the Bellaire city council had it's meeting to confirm the club's donations. Ed Stephens announced the Bellaire coin shows for the year. All shows will be at the Civic Center, 7008 Rice Avenue. The Ed Stephens sponsored shows are February 13-14 and October 23-24. The Bellaire club sponsored shows are May 22-23 and August 7-8. All shows are also listed on Coinshow.Com. Alan Morgan and other members stated the "email" newsletter has been showing yellow text. Michael Wolford creates the newsletter in Microsoft Word. Converts to Windows XP. Sends email through Yahoo/AT & T. Tom Cooper received a coffee can of tokens from Jeff Todd. Sebastian Frommhold noted the Raymond Plotkin, young numismatic had died, Sebastian noted that the spring show be dedicated to Raymond. Michael Wolford noted that tonight is the first formal meeting to remind about the membership dues. The following members presented a short program, John Barber, Bruce Burton, Sebastian Frommhold, Sam Gold, Ethan Krail, Gene McPherson, Alan Morgan, and Alvin Stern. Ethan Krail won the show and tell prize. Gene McPherson used one of Ethan Krail's items for his show and tell. Ethan had to leave to get ready for school. Ethan gave his ticket to Gene McPherson. Gene had two chances to win, Ethan's ticket actually won.

January 18, 2009.

M L King Day (Club had a meeting, but editor thought library was closed.)

February 1, 2010.

There were 25 members and guest at the meeting. Garth Clark and the club discussed the Ed Stephen's show February 13-14. The show still need children's auction lots. Confirmed who will work the children's auction and snack bar area. A member noticed that the Dallas/Forth Worth area has more coins show, but Houston has more gun shows. Garth Clark and the club discussed the deaths the past few months. Raymond Plotkin; created a donation to help the fund the "Plotkin scholarship". Chris Johns; most of the plans were discussed at the meeting that was missed. Jeremy Ross, Ralph Ross's Son, don't remember what was discussed. The club may dedicate a Bellaire sponsored shows to these members. Confirmed that one show will be dedicated to Raymond Plotkin. A club member suggested a new to get new members, create club information business cards. Ed Stephens noted that the Bellaire August show has forward to July. Ed Stephens has check; there are not conflicts with other shows. Ed Stephens confirmed again that admission is free for members, with the auction at 12:30 PM Saturday only. Tom Cooper noted that John and Barbara Trout were both hospitalized. John Trout broke his collarbone. Barbara Trout believed to have foot surgery. The following members presented a short program, Bruce Burton, Richardo DeLeon, Sebastian Frommhold, Brain Holland, Gene McPherson and Alvin Stern. Richardo DeLeon won the show and tell prize. Richardo DeLeon donated prize to the children's activities.

February 15, 2010.

There were 23 members and guest at the meeting. The meeting didn't have any major business. The main discussion was about Ed Stephen's coin show this past weekend at the Bellaire Civic Center. Show chairman Ed Stephen's didn't attend this meeting. Nobody noted any show problems. The following members presented a short program, Garth Clark, Richardo DeLeon, Sebastian Frommhold, Gen McPherson, Rupert Soliz, Alvin Stern, and Bill Watson. Rupert Soliz won the show and tell prize.
