Beginning in June 2010, the Greater Houston Coin Club monthly meetings will be held at the Saint Luke's United Methodist Church at 3471 Westheimer between Edloe and Buffalo Speedway. These new meetings will be shorter in duration than the meeting we've had at the Fair Haven Church, and will be ending by 9:00 PM. The church parking lot is south of Westheimer, behind the sanctuary, and is accessible from Westheimer, Alabama, and Edloe. Meeting room location and official gaveling time for meeting beginning to be announced soon. Check for update on the GHCC homepage at Houstoncoinclub.org and the May 2010 GHCC meeting at the Fair Haven Church. If you have any questions, please contact: Edwin Johnston Edi@Hal-Pc.Org or (713) 523-0119.

Editor's version of what happened to Bellaire coin club this month.

April 5, 2010

There were 24 members and guest at the meeting. Garth Clark reminded everybody that tonight was the last meeting to pay membership dues. Michael Wolford stated that all attending members are paid. The only ones left to notify are the email and a few paper members. Garth Clark noted that the Bellaire coin show is May 22-23. Located at the Bellaire Civic Center, 7000 South Rice Avenue. Tom Bermel presented extra copies of show flyers. Garth Clark received a bag of ancient coins from Brian Holland. Tom Cooper asked if the club still needed more US coins. Garth Clark and the club discussed getting more young numismatists from area high schools. Tom Cooper and Michael Wolford will need your help during the show, but they would like new members to help too. Volunteers will only be needed at least one hour. During the time, you will hear interesting stories from visitors or other members. The following members presented a show and tell, John Barber, Tom Bermel, Richardo DeLeon, Brian Holland, Gene McPherson, Alvin Stern and Michael Wolford. Michael Wolford won the show and tell prize.

April 19, 2010

There were 22 members and guest at the meeting. Garth Clark stated that Sebastian Frommhold is in Germany. Ed Stephens noted that the Bellaire coin show is May 22-23. Located at the Bellaire Civic Center, 7000 South Rice Avenue. Ed noted that the show advertising is in "Coin World" and coin websites. Ed also noted that show have special booths. Booths for coin evaluation, book information, snack bar and children's auction. Alvin Stern discussed the Texas Numismatic Association's show in Fort Worth. Garth Clark suggested that some of the "show and tells" be expanded to programs. Alvin Stern announced a special program at the Greater Houston meeting, May 20. Special interactive program: "Black Swan Treasure," a "People's Court" format. Fair Haven United Methodist Church: 1330 N Gessner Rd. Garth Clark noted that the May 20 meeting is the last meeting at Fair Haven. The new location is the Saint Luke's United Methodist Church at 3471 Westheimer at Edloe. The following members presented a show and tell, John Barber, Richard Laster, Gene McPherson, Al Morgan, Ed Stephens, Alvin Stern, and John Trout. Ed Stephens won the show and tell prize. Ed Stephens donated his door prize to the next children's activities.
